

Unit 18

- 1 Vocabulary: Fill in the missing words in the correct form.
Vokabelübung: Setzen Sie die fehlenden Wörter in der richtigen Form ein.

to establish to wonder to look after to protect to name after customer to attract reduced to welcome to disappear male umbrella entrance valuable

- a. "Solveig? What a strange name!" – "Well, the girl her Norwegian grandmother."
b. Where can we get into the castle? I can't find the
c. Could you my cat while I'm on holiday?
d. It's raining, don't forget your
e. "When was this club?" – "In 1887."
f. I've never seen John working. I how he can afford the life he lives.
g. This painting by Picasso is very
h. The old British castles always a lot of visitors.
i. "Have you seen Mick?" – "He with a cool blonde an hour ago."
j. The opposite of female is
k. When we arrived at the hotel, we were by the manager.
l. About 627,000 acres of land are by the National Trust.
m. They were students, so they got in at a price.
n. The Smiths always buy all their foodstuff at my store. They are my best

a. was named after b. entrance c. look after d. umbrella
e. established f. wonder g. valuable h. attract i. disappeared
j. male k. welcomed l. protected m. reduced n. customers

Lösungen:

Unit 18

2 Put the following sentences into the passive. Drop the by-agent where it is possible.
Wandeln Sie die folgenden Sätze ins Passiv um. Lassen Sie den by-agent weg, wo es möglich ist.

a. The public can visit this castle from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

This castle can be visited from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

b. You must not step on the grass.

.....

c. People may borrow books from the public library from 10:00 am to 4:30 pm.

.....

d. The National Trust could save many houses since the 1930s.

.....

e. I needn't say that your argument is absolutely silly.

.....

f. Only the Pope (Papst) could annul their marriage.

.....

g. You may not change the word order of this sentence.

.....

h. They could not read the notice from where they stood.

.....

i. The owners of the houses had to open them to the public.

.....

j. Your guests should not use my old porcelain as ashtrays.

.....

Lösungen:
b. The grass must not be stepped on.
c. Books from the public library may be borrowed from 10:00 am to 4:30 pm.
d. Many houses could be saved by the National Trust since the 1930s.
e. It needn't be said that your argument is absolutely silly.
f. Their marriage could only be annulled by the pope.
g. The word order of this sentence may not be changed.
h. The notice could not be read from where they stood.
i. The houses had to be opened to the public.
j. My old porcelain should not be used as ashtrays by your guests.

Unit 18

- 3 Active or passive? Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb.
Aktiv oder Passiv? Vervollständigen Sie die Sätze mit der korrekten Verbform.
Jede der Ihnen bekannten Zeiten (Aktiv oder Passiv) kann notwendig sein!

- a. The National Trust was established (to establish) in 1895.
- b. Since then the Trust (to buy) about 400.000 acres of land.
- c. Do you think the Trust's work (ever/to finish)?
- d. Last year I (to help) them when an old farmhouse nearby (to repair).
- e. There were a lot of voluntary workers, but some of the work (must/to do) by a professional construction company.
- f. Right now the windows (to replace).
- g. The grass around the house (not/to cut) for years, but they probably leave the garden until they are done with the house itself.
- h. It's interesting to see how the house (to give back) its old shape.
- i. Before they (to begin) to repair the house, the owner (must/persuade) to give it to the Trust.
- j. In the beginning he (not/to like) the idea, but after he
(to tell) that the Trust would repair the house and that he could still live in it, he gave in (nachgeben).
- k. Well, he (must) live in something like a museum when the house is finished, but he ..... (not/to mind), as long as the work (to do) by somebody else.

Lösungen:
b. has bought c. will ever be finished d. helped, was being repaired
e. had to be done f. are being replaced g. has not been cut
h. is given back/is being given back i. began, had to be persuaded
j. didn't like the idea, had been told k. 'll have to, doesn't, is done/is being done